

The Nooksack Indian Tribe

Nooksack Northwood Casino is an incorporated business owned and operated by the Nooksack Indian Tribe, a federally recognized American Indian Nation of over 1800 enrolled members. As an employee of the casino, you must be aware that you are working for a sovereign nation. In 1993, The Tribe opened the Nooksack River Casino on Mt.

Baker Highway. Gaming is nothing new to the Nooksack people, who have long enjoyed card games and the traditional bone game. With the advent of Indian casinos in Washington state, and the legalization of electronic gaming devices (slot machines) that soon followed, Nooksack history opened a new chapter.

Today the Nooksack Indian Tribe is the largest employer in eastern Whatcom County. The Nooksack River and Nooksack Northwood Casinos have provided new opportunities for economic growth, both for the tribe and the community at large, and with its success has come other business opportunities including Nooksack Market Centre, located next to the casino, and the Nooksack Construction Company. We look forward to continued growth and prosperity.

Getting Hired at Northwood

Application

The hiring process begins with the an employment application. Once completed, your application is forwarded to the departments in which you are interested. The departments will call you to come in for an interview. You may be asked to come in for multiple interviews in different departments. You are welcome to follow up on your application via phone or in person.

Interview and Background Check

After a successful interview, you will be extended an offer of employment contingent on the satisfactory completion of a background check, drug screen and gaming license.

Licensing

The Washington State Gambling Commission requires a complete 10-year background history. Once you have completed the paperwork, you will see a Nooksack Gaming Agent who will take your fingerprints and your picture for your employee badge. Cost for the Class II gaming license is $100 and Class III is $246 for in-state residents of 5 years or more and $305 for all others. You do not have to pay these fees up front, they can be conveniently deducted from as many as 8 paychecks.

Call 360-354-7428 or 360-592-5472 (ask for Human Resources) for more information, or stop by our recruitment office open Monday thru Friday, 9 am to 5:30 pm.
